Tiny Tips for BIG Picture Scrapbook Pages, Part Three 3 Easy-To-Remember Tips for Trophy Titling

by Jen White

Don't settle for an ordinary title on a big picture scrapbook page. Instead, use a trophy title! Trophy titles are written in a fabulous font (or two) and are always very prominent on your page.

For this tutorial you will need:

- Photoshop Elements or Adobe Photoshop
- Two contrasting display fonts (see recommendation & links below)

One Big Rule for Trophy Titles

- Trophy Titles are BIG and beautiful.
  - Make the title at least 1/2 the size of the scrapbook page.
  - Next to the subject of the photo, the title should be the second thing that captures your attention when taking in the details of the page.

Tip One: Use Different Font Categories

- Use display fonts - fonts that are extraordinary.
- When using more than one font, use opposing fonts, like script with sans serif.

Tip Two: Use Different Opacities

- Use the same color.
- Set the main word to full opacity.
- Set the secondary word to 50% opacity.

Tip Three: Use Different Cases

- Type one word of the title in uppercase.
- Type one word of the title in lowercase.
- Never use a script font when typing all uppercase.

Bonus Tip: Overlap the Words

- Overlap words of a trophy tile.
